Please note: The amount charged is subject to change based on the amount of the actual fee and or cost assessed and any applicable local ordinances or state law. No fee and or cost shall exceed any state allowable limit or loan document limitations.

- 1 Costs are based on the market price for such services in a particular state/locale.
- 2 There may be an additional charge if the service is performed on a rush basis or ongoing maintenance is required.
- 3 Costs may exceed the stated range under extraordinary situations including, but not limited to, nonconforming properties, proposed construction, beach, canyon, rural and remote locations, atypical large gross living area and improvements may incur an additional charge.
- 4 Utility costs are passed through based on actual utility company billing. Depending on the circumstances - such as billing rates or consumption rate - the charges can vary widely.
- 5 Costs may vary depending on local ordinances.
- 6 Fees/Costs represent the actual amount charged by the attorney or trustee for work performed. Attorney/Trustee costs can vary based upon the amount of time spent or the issues raised during the process, among other factors. This does not include related costs including, but not limited to, filing fees, court costs or other administrative or direct pass through expenses which may be required by law or Courts. Depending on the circumstances - including the jurisdiction, local practice, the legal rates in the location, the character of the proceeding and whether the matter is contested in the course of any bankruptcy proceedings, multiple filings or objections to plans, among other factors – fees/costs could exceed the stated range.
- 7 Process server costs vary based on several factors including the number of parties that must be served and the difficulty of achieving service (e.g., the cost may be higher if a party is avoiding service, is difficult to locate or distant from the forum).
- 8 Publication/posting costs vary based on the publication method used and/or selected that may be required to meet local or legal requirements, such as court orders or mandates that require us to use specific publications which may significantly increase the amount assessed to the loan.
- 9 The amount for these costs varies widely and is dependent on many factors, including the nature and extent of the work performed or services provided, the location of the property, size of the residence, character of the infestation or contamination among other factors.
- 10 Costs may exceed the stated range under extraordinary situations including, but not limited to, emergency services, large lots, extensive landscaping, the size or condition of the systems and location, the amount of personal property or the condition of the property and location, the character or extend of any damage, local ordinances, or the term during which the property remains subject to default.
- 11 Costs may vary depending on extraordinary situations including, but not limited to, nonconforming properties, proposed construction, beach, canyon, rural and remote locations, atypical large gross living area and over-improvements may incur an additional charge.
- 12 Costs may vary depending on extraordinary situations including, but not limited to, emergency services, large lots, extensive landscaping, the size or condition of the systems and location, the amount of personal property or the condition of the property and location, the character or extend of any damage, local ordinances, or the term during which the property remains subject to default.
- 13 Depending on the circumstances of the foreclosure, title search may occur more than once, resulting in the cost being incurred more than once.
- 14 For NY loans, only one appraisal fee will be charged within a 12-month period. Additional reasonable appraisal fees may be charged in connection with loss mitigation evaluations, provided that at least one appraisal has been completed free of charge within the same 12-month period.
